

DISPUTE RESOLUTION POLICY

Purpose

1. GRNBRG and its Members support the principles of Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) and are committed to the techniques of negotiation, facilitation, and mediation as effective ways to resolve disputes. ADR also avoids the uncertainty, costs, and other negative effects associated with lengthy appeals or complaints, or with litigation.
2. GRNBRG and its Members encourage all individuals to communicate openly, and to collaborate and use problem-solving and negotiation techniques to resolve their differences. GRNBRG and its Members believe that negotiated settlements are most often preferable to arbitrated outcomes. Negotiated resolutions to disputes with and among individuals are strongly encouraged.

Application of the policy

3. This policy applies to all individuals.
4. Opportunities for ADR may be pursued at any point in a dispute when all parties to the dispute agree that such a course of action would be mutually beneficial.

Facilitation and mediation

5. If all parties to a dispute agree to ADR, a mediator or facilitator, acceptable to all parties, shall be appointed to mediate or facilitate the dispute.
6. Third-party resources may be engaged for dispute resolution. An option as a third-party resource can be the NB Safe Sport Dispute Resolution Program if the dispute complies with the established eligibility criteria of the Program and/or dealing with maltreatment as defined in the Universal Code of Conduct to Prevent and Address Maltreatment in Sport.
7. The mediator or facilitator shall decide the format under which the dispute shall be mediated or facilitated and may, if they consider it appropriate, specify a deadline before which the parties must reach a negotiated decision.
8. Should a negotiated settlement be reached, the settlement shall be reported to GRNBRG or the Member (as applicable). Any actions that are to take place as a result of the decision shall be enacted on the timelines specified by the negotiated decision, pending approval of the Association or the Member (as applicable).

9. Should a negotiated settlement not be reached by the deadline specified by the mediator or facilitator at the start of the process (if set), or if the parties to the dispute do not agree to ADR, the dispute shall be considered under the appropriate section of the Code of conduct of GRNBRG.

Final and Binding

10. Any negotiated settlement will be binding on the parties. Negotiated settlements may not be appealed.
